

Clients and Testimonials

Here's what some of our clients are saying about us ...

"Write Away, Inc.'s passion for food writing is reflected in their regular features on chefs and restaurants in Southeast Food Service News. They initiate ideas for articles, follow through with interviews, photos and timely features before their deadlines."

— Elliott R. Fischer, Publisher/Marketing Manager, Southeast Food Service News

"We contracted with Write Away, Inc. to help us to design a brochure and conference packet for a new program we were launching called, "The Leadership Institute." We were very happy with the product, services and attention-to-detail. The staff always kept the lines of communication open, listened to our needs and delivered a product that was exactly what we were looking for! I would not hesitate to use Write Away, Inc.'s services again; they would be an asset to any project. "

— Mike Reagen, CEO, Naples, FL, Chamber of Commerce

"Write Away was instrumental in organizing a team of writers and making sure that their content was accurate, on target and easy-to-understand. They were able to take technical information and transform it into copy that readers could easily extract information from at-a-glance."

— Leslie Norrins, MD, former publisher, The Coding Institute, the nation's largest publisher of medical coding and reimbursement newsletters

"I have assigned Write Away, Inc. stories in the restaurant and food-service industry in Tennessee, which is 200 miles away from my home office in Louisville, KY. They have done the research and completed their assignments on schedule. Their writing style is well suited to our magazine and their stories require very little editing or follow-up. I place a great value on retaining freelance writers who can work independently and Write Away has a proven ability to work in this fashion."

— Dan Weldy, Publisher, Prep Magazine

"Write Away has been a valued contributor to Sommelier News for some time now. They have been a fabulous liaison with our graduates — their interview subjects — and always contribute timely, well-edited work."

— Wayne Gotts, Editor, Sommelier News

"Write Away's work has been extremely valuable to our publication. In addition to their strong writing skills, they hit every deadline, contribute creative story ideas and collaborate with me to address readers' interests. You can always count on Write Away to deliver just what they promise - a good story."

— Rita Larkin, Specialty Publications Editor, Asheville Citizen-Times
